Chapter 2 by Ichigo

Alisha didn't understand. He wasn't his girlfriend or anything of the sort, but he'd shared many things with her that she was sure he'd never told anyone else. She was trying to sort out what the bologna sandwich thing could mean when a sandwich hit her on the shoulder. Alisha flinched and looked around, angry and annoyed. A boy, about 5 feet away from her was laughing. He had a tough chiseled face, a nice gangly build and messy blond hair that looked cute in a way. His pea green eyes looked full of laughter and Alisha got the feeling that he was a troublemaker jock.

He came over to her and leans in real close. " You didn't think I was a boy outside of spanish class, did ya?" He whispers and grins. Then he walks away.
